RADICALS AGAIN BEATEN

By the Associated Press New ovrk, May 13.—Eugene V. Debs, federal convict No. 2253, was nominated by acclamation for the presi-dency of the United States at the Socialist party's national convention here Cheer upon cheer greeted the naming of the Socialist leader, now serving a ten years' sentence in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., for violation of the espionage act. The din was continuous, as all those who had been able to crowd their way into the conven-tion hall strained forward, eyes bent on the platform, where was set a life-sized portrait of Debs, framed in black. No candidate has been slated for the vice presidency. Party leaders pre-dicted that the vice presidential contest would be between Seymour Stedman, of Chicago, general counsel of the Socialist party, and Professor Scott Nearing, at one time connected with the University of Pennsylvaia.

The convention, by a show of hands, voted down 74 to 57 the renewed attempt of the Illinois delegation to inject into the party platform demands for a dictatorship of the proletariat. with limitation of citizenship. The roll-call was demanded when the Chicago delegates claimed doubt as to the ac-curacy of the count. The exact vote was shown to be S0 to 60.

Jackson, Wyo., to Be Under Petticoats Following Election When Men Are Defeated

Cheyenne, Wyo., May 12.—(By A. P.)—Women will occupy all positions in the government of Jackson, Wyo., as a result of their defeat of men candidates by a 2 to 1 vote in Tuesday's election, unofficial returns last night showed. There were two tickets in the field, one composed entirely of men and the other of women, the only issue in the campaign being the question of sex, Jackson, it is said, is the first town in the United States to be so governed.

P. -Foreign trade policies and the assistance available to importers and exporters through United States agencies were discussed today by the National Foreign Trade Council.

R. M. Calkins, vice president

Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Rail-way, of Chicago, chairman of the group session on transportation communication, spoke on the "Dement of Export and Import Transpor He declared the government either should continue the operation of the merchant marine built up during the war under the United States shipping board, or sell the fleet to Americans at prices they could afford to pay. At no time should the government permit the ships to pass beyond the control of this government, he said. Ninety-three per cent of the con-merce to the Far East was carried, he said, in foreign ships and the only service received by the Philippines was furnished by government while business men of the territory were clamoring for increased shipping facilities with the mainland."
